

UNITED TRIBES OF NORTH CAROLINA

November 15, 2012

Dear ,

The Board of Directors of United Tribes of North Carolina has been busy planning the 38th Annual N.C. Indian Unity Conference, and we know you will want to be a part of it!

The conference will be held February 28 - March 2, 2013 at the Sheraton Greensboro Hotel at Four Seasons Joseph S. Koury Convention Center in Greensboro, N.C. The conference theme, “Planting the Future from our Traditional Roots through Healthy Eating”, reflects the relationship of traditional native plants to a contemporary healthy diet.

Each year approximately 350 participants gather from across the state and nation to dialogue about a variety of issues facing American Indians in North Carolina. The conference provides a platform for individuals to identify resources, network with others, and develop strategies to improve the well-being of our states first citizens.

The success of this conference depends upon the financial support of businesses, organizations, tribes, and individuals like you who want to honor and celebrate the contributions of American Indians. A variety of sponsorship levels have been established to meet your giving ability and provide opportunities for recognition.

United Tribes of North Carolina is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization allowing tax deductible contributions. For more information on the 2013 N.C. Indian Unity Conference, please contact Gladys Hunt at (910)483-8442 or ccaip@netzero.net or visit www.doa.nc.gov/cia.

We are excited about this year’s event and hope you will join us as a financial supporter. Help us as we once again make history!

Sincerely,

Gladys Hunt, President
United Tribes of North Carolina
