“Native Survivors”

Elections for the Executive Board of the North Carolina Native American Youth Organization will be held June 18, 2009, at the Indian Youth Conference at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Positions to be elected are chairperson, vice-chair, secretary/ treasurer, historian, senior representatives and area representatives. To qualify for an Executive Board Office, one must meet the following requirements:

1. Candidate must be an underclass student in high school.
2. Candidate for the chairperson must be a rising high school SENIOR (Class of 2010).
3. Candidate for senior representative must be a 2009 graduate attending college in the fall.
4. Candidate must be present at the June conference.

The North Carolina Native American Youth Organization (NCNAYO) will provide an excellent opportunity for young Indian men and women to gain valuable experiences through working on projects, researching issues, speaking at Indian and non-Indian conferences, holding press conferences, working to promote unity among Indian groups across the state and nation, meeting with political and civic leaders, and planning the 2010 Indian Youth Unity Conference. This organization will be a vehicle through which Indian youth can better serve their communities; therefore, we encourage Indian tribes and organizations to make an extra effort to assure that their communities have qualified young people running for each of the elective offices.

DUTIES OF EXECUTIVE BOARD OFFICERS

Executive Board

The Executive Board shall consist of the chairperson, vice-chair, secretary/ treasurer, historian, senior representative and area representatives.

Chairperson

The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the North Carolina Native American Youth Organization and the Executive Board shall call special meetings; and shall be ultimately responsible for the leadership and direction of the organization. The chairperson will also represent NCNAYO on the Board of Directors for the N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs and United Tribes of North Carolina.

Vice-Chair

The vice-chair shall perform all the duties of the chairperson in his/her absence or at his/her designation; shall appoint all committee chairpersons, with appointees subject to the approval of the Executive Board; and shall be responsible for all committees.

Secretary/Treasurer

The secretary shall keep the minutes of all the meetings and send copies to the North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs and to all tribal organizations within two weeks after the Executive Board and/or North Carolina Native American Youth Organization meetings shall handle all assigned correspondence; and shall maintain attendance records. She/he shall keep the financial records; shall, with the chairperson and Executive Board, develop the annual budget; shall make written quarterly reports; and shall make regular reports on all funds and expenditures.

Historian

The historian shall keep photographic and narrative reports of all NCNAYO activities and make video/power point presentations upon request.

Senior Representatives

The senior representatives shall serve as liaisons between NCNAYO and students who are graduates that year. The senior representatives will act as liaisons between NCNAYO and Native American organizations at all post-secondary institutions.

Area Representative

At least two representatives shall be elected by the individual tribal/county organization representing: Coharie, Eastern Band of Cherokee, Haliwa-Saponi, Lumbee, Meherrin, Occaneechi Band of Saponi Nation, Sappony, Waccamaw-Siouan, Cumberland County Association for Indian People, Guilford Native American Association, Metrolina Native American Association, Triangle Native American Society, and other counties present at the conference.
