FY2010-11 Martin Luther King Jr. Commission Grant Criteria

The North Carolina Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission is seeking applications for its FY2010-11 Grant Program. The Commission has been authorized by the North Carolina General Assembly to award a limited number of grants to assist existing or emerging Martin Luther King, Jr. programs.

The Commission requires proposals be specifically geared to organizing, promoting and implementing programs that reflect the philosophy of Dr. King throughout the year. Examples include, but are not limited to: youth programs to enhance race relations; voter education and registration; reducing the high school drop-out rate; literacy programs (including essay contest); anti-gang activities; leadership training; and promotion of cultural arts.

General Guidelines

1. Proposals for the FY2010-11 Grant must be postmarked by March 5, 2010. All proposals must be sent to 1318 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, N.C. 27699-1318. Faxed or emailed applications will not be accepted
2. Proposals must be submitted by non-profit organizations incorporated in North Carolina with IRS tax-exempt status or governmental entities. Organizations without authorized tax-exempt status will be considered only if they operate under the auspices of an incorporated non-profit organization or governmental agency with IRS tax-exempt status; however, you must include the Tax or ID number and certified copy of the Articles of Incorporation of this affiliated organization.
3. Non-Governmental applicants must include the following with their application:
 - a. Certified copy of Articles of Incorporation (includes Secretary of State's official seal).
 - b. By-laws of your organization.
 - c. Letters of tax exempt status from the Internal Revenue Service.
 - d. List of your organization's Board of Directors/Trustees.
4. Grant amount of up to $5,000 each will be awarded to one or more organization in each of the seven (7) designated regions of North Carolina based upon the merit of its Request for Proposal (RFP). If more than one entity from a region qualifies, the funds for that region will be shared. So, we encourage organizations within the same county, region, etc. to collaborate (i.e., between religious affiliated organizations, NAACP, Urban League, Human Relations Commissions, Economic Development Councils, and the Department of Social Services, to name a few). If all applicants in one or more of the regions fail to qualify for a grant award because its proposal did not meet the established criteria or because its proposal lacked merit, the Commission reserves the right to expend remaining funds as it deems necessary.
5. INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED. IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE APPLICANT TO SUBMIT ALL MATERIALS IN ONE PACKET BY MARCH 5, 2010.
6. The Commission has the authority to terminate funding and to seek return of all funds awarded for any misrepresentation.

7. The organization must be willing to enter into a contractual agreement with the Commission concerning funds.
8. Applications from previously funded organizations will be considered for additional funding only if the Commission has received all required forms and reports from the previous grant cycle.
9. Organizations receiving grants will be required to submit an interim report and other required financial documentation to the Commission by June 30, 2010. This report should include details of the project, including publicity materials, and full accounting for all monies received by the Commission using the budget submitted with the contract. This will also include forms required by the Office of State Budget Management.

Request for Proposal of Grant Implementation Guidelines

1. MISSION STATEMENT: The mission of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission is to encourage appropriate ceremonies and activities throughout the State relating to the observance of the legal holiday honoring Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday; provide advice and assistance to local governments and private organizations across the State with respect to the observance of such holiday; and promote among the people of North Carolina an awareness and appreciation of the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
2. Applications for the Grant must be postmarked on or before March 5, 2010. Final decisions should be made by the Commission the week of April 1-5, 2010.
3. PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS: The Commission invites proposals in narrative form, not to exceed three (3) typed pages. Five (5) copies of the application, narrative proposal, and budget/details of how the money will be expended should be forwarded to the Commission. One (1) copy of the checklist and required supporting documents must also be included and placed on top of the five application-proposal-budget sets. The narrative proposal should specifically address the following:
 - a. Grant Proposal should describe in detail in the proposed narrative how organizations intend to implement the program and illustrate how they are addressing and resolving these issues in their communities.
 - b. The ways in which the proposed year-round King program(s) will address one of these issues in a creative or innovative manner. Describe the projected impact of this program on the community, including demographic data, local statistics or other relevant information.
 - c. A proposed budget for the activity and the amount of funds requested from the Commission. Funds already committed for the program(s) and their source, as well as other sources and amounts being sought for funding; i.e., area churches, businesses, civic organizations, foundations, etc. Funds for salaries will not be considered for award by the Commission.
 - d. The specific objectives the project hopes to accomplish, in measurable terms (i.e. including information about the number of people expected to attend the program(s); how the program(s) will encourage multiracial participation, reduce violence and crime, educate the public about Dr. King's philosophy, and/or increase collaborative efforts between organizations).etc.
4. Grant applications will be reviewed by the Commission in the areas of merit, originality, appropriateness, likelihood of success, benefit to community, quality of proposal, length of program, and how the proposed program promotes the philosophies and principles of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
5. If your organization is not a unit of government or an incorporated tax-exempt organization, a copy of the sponsoring organization's information outlined in item #3 under General Guidelines must be submitted with the application form.

Please forward five copies of your application, narrative proposal, and budget, and one copy of the checklist and supporting documents to the N.C. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission, 1318 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, N.C. 27699-1318.
