NORTH CAROLINA OFFICE FOR HISTORICALLY UNDERUTILIZED BUSINESSES

January 2020 Edition

The 83rd Attorney General of the United States, Loretta Lynch, and Governor Roy Cooper both addressed the impact Dr. King made in North Carolina in the fight for civil rights.

Celebrating the Legacy of Dr. King

On Friday, January 17, 2020, the State of North Carolina held its annual State Employees' Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Observance Program in Raleigh, NC. This year's theme centered on Dr. King's quote: "Life's most persistent and urgent question is—what are you doing for others?"

The Honorable Loretta Lynch, a Greensboro native, gave the keynote address. Other speakers included Governor Cooper and the members of the NC MLK, JR. Commission. The program focused on giving back to the community, service, commitment to inclusion, and gratitude.

The HUB Office, like so many state advocacy groups, works everyday to fulfill Dr. King's vision for the future and we are committed to continuing to work towards our supplier diversity and certification goals in 2020.

Director's Quote of the Month:

HUB Director Tammie Hall

"What the new year brings to you will depend a great deal on what you bring to the new year."

- Vern McLellan

Kicking off 2020 HUB Events

The HUB Office in partnership with Nash Community College in Rocky Mount, NC, held our first Vendor Orientation Training this year. The "HUB Certified.... Now What?" training is for newly certified vendors who wish to gain more knowledge on state purchasing and obtaining bid opportunities. We encourage all certified HUB vendors to look out for this training near you and plan to attend to gain a better understanding of state procurement laws and processes.

More trainings and events are being planned for 2020 and will be announced soon!
