1. The State Property Office reserves the right to reject or negotiate any and all offers and, in its sole discretion, will determine the successful offeror. All offers are subject to acceptance or rejection for any reason at the discretion of the Director, State Property Office.
2. Title to the land will be conveyed by deed without warranty. The State of North Carolina makes no representations or warranties concerning the title to the property, the boundaries of the property, the uses to which the property may be made, zoning, local ordinances, or any physical, environmental, health and safety conditions relating to the property. Prospective purchasers are encouraged and shall be responsible for making all independent inquiries and confirming the accuracy of the information contained herein. Any and all prospective purchasers are advised to make an independent investigation of these matters, and any responsibilities or liabilities arising out of or relating to such matters are expressly disclaimed by the State of North Carolina. The State of North Carolina is not responsible for any cost incurred by prospective purchaser. The property will be sold "as is, where is".

3. The property will be sold for cash upon delivery of the deed. Once the successful offeror has been determined and accepted, the two thousand five hundred dollar ($2,500.00) certified funds deposit will be applied to the purchase price. If the purchaser subsequently fails, refuses, or is unable to close the transaction for any reason, at time of delivery of deed, the State of North Carolina will retain the deposit as liquidated damages.
4. The State Property Office shall be entitled to retain and use without compensation to any party, individual or entity any information submitted, including but not limited to any concept, element or idea (including financial or ownership structures or schemes) disclosed in or evident from an offer. All information submitted in response to this offer shall become the property of the State of North Carolina.
5. The State Property Office reserves the right at its sole and absolute discretion and without liability to modify, amend or otherwise change, or to extend, suspend, postpone, cancel, any part of this offering.
6. Any contingencies, restrictions or limiting conditions regarding the offer shall be included in the offer.
7. A real estate commission will not be paid by the State.
8. The State of North Carolina and their respective officers, employees, consultants and agents, shall not under any circumstances, including pursuant to contract, tort, statutory duty, law, equity or otherwise, or any actual or implied duty of fairness, be responsible or liable for any costs, expenses, loss of opportunities, claims, losses, damages or any other liabilities to anyone arising out of or related to this offering. By submitting an offer to purchase, prospective purchaser(s) has accepted and agreed to the foregoing.
