Security Maintenance Open House

On September 14, the NC Office for Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUB) joined the NC Department of Commerce (Commerce) to host an open house event for HUB vendors interested in participating in an upcoming state government maintenance service project. Presenters included HUB Director Tammie Hall, Commerce Secretary Machel Baker Sanders and Assistant Secretary of Commerce's Employment and Security Division Pryor Gibson. The event provided attendees a tour and project details on maintenance service needs to the Employment Security Office located on Wade Avenue in Raleigh, North Carolina. RETOOLNC

The RETOOLNC program reopened on September 27th to offer a third round of funding to eligible HUBs and disadvantaged business enterprise (DBE) firms. HUBs and DBEs are encouraged to apply while funding is available. The HUB Office is in a continued partnership with the Carolina Small Business Fund and the National Institute for Minority Economic Development to administer the grant program to help small underutilized businesses post-pandemic.

On October 8, the HUB Office will host the grand opening of North Carolina's first Minority Business Development

Agency. We hope you can join us for the ribbon cutting ceremony as we celebrate the opening of the new center and Minority Enterprise Development Week. Register today.

Minority Enterprise Development (MED) Week recognizes and celebrates the achievements and impact of minority entrepreneurs across North Carolina. MED Week events held across the state provide adequate opportunities for networking with like-minded entrepreneurs while simultaneously providing valuable information to promote the expansion and strengthening of small businesses around the state of North Carolina. Find and register for upcoming events below and plan to join the HUB Office for our statewide event on October 8th!

HUB Vendor Recognition

Carroll Communications, a HUB certified and service-disabled veteran-owned small business (SDVOSB) that specializes in areas such as product supply, installations, and assessment of telecommunications, is a recipient of the prestigious Nunn-Perry award by the U.S. Department of Defense. Read the press release.

On receiving the award, "We are very honored to be a part of this and would like to share this news with you. A small business like us here at Carroll Communications can still make a big difference."

Congratulations!
