Sepidah Saidi, President of Sepi Engineering and 2019 recipient of the Chix Dig It: Women in Construction Trailblazer Award

Saidi of Sepi Engineering wins Chix Dig It 2019 Trailblazer Award

Sepidah Saidi, President and CEO of SEPI Engineering, was awarded the 2019 Trailblazer Award at the annual "Celebrating Women in Construction" luncheon for Chix Dig It. Sepi's employees refer to her as "a bold leader who inspires us with her vision."

HUB office community engagement specialist Melissa Terrell attended the event. She says Saidi's success represents the phenomenal work women are doing across the state.

HUB Director Tammie Hall

Director's Quote of the Month:

"If they don't give you a seat at the table, bring a folding chair."

- Shirley Chisholm, First African American Congresswoman

"Chisholm's words are a reminder that we can't wait for an invitation to claim a seat at the table. It is our responsibility to bring our own chairs, bodies and voices into the room. Government at its most effective is not a place of privilege, but a place where all citizens claim their space at the table."

~ Glynda Carr

NCCU Eagles Soar in HUB Participation

The Soaring Eagles at North Carolina Central University (NCCU) recently held groundbreaking ceremonies to highlight three new P3 student-housing projects that will open in 2020 to accommodate the growing demand of on campus housing needs. Congratulations to the 100% HUB Design Build team of Metcon Construction, Vines Architecture, and Structure Building Company, Inc.!

NCCU held another groundbreaking ceremony for their new Student Center. Congratulations to HUB firms: Falcon Engineering, Holt Brothers, Inc., Lynch Mykins Structural Engineers, Stewart Engineering, and Structure Building Company, Inc. #EaglePride
